LATEST INTELLIGENCE

MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 30TH, 1878.

In the shape of telegraphic advices from Home, we have as usual on Monday very little really new to report. Consols are unchanged at 94¼ and French Rentes at 113¾. Exchange on India for 60 days' sight Bills is still quoted at 1 7/8. Enfaced Rupee Paper remains at Rs. 79 for Fours and Rs 83 for Fours-and-a-half per cents. Bar silver is still quoted at 51 ⅛ per oz.

In the London General Produce Market Coffee and Cocoanut Oil are unchanged. The Markets for Seeds are quite, and for Wheat rather firmer.

Indian Exchange Bank shares with the exception of Orientals are lower. Those of the Chartered Bank have given way 10s., of the Mercantile £1, and of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation £1. The shares of the Oriental Bank are at their last week's quotation of £39 10s.

The Liverpool Cotton Market on Saturday closed firm, the sales amounting to 10,000 bales of which 1,200 were Surats. Prices to Bombay descriptions are unchanged, but Mid. O lean according to Reuter is 1-16 per lb. dearer, the quotation now being 6 9-16d. per lb. The New York telegrams of Saturday's date advise the day's Receipts as 18,000 bales, and the price of Mid. Uplands ⅛ cent. per lb. lower on the spot, but unchanged for December delivery, the quotations being 10⅞ and 10¾ cent. per lb. respectively.

The following is the visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 27th inst. as compared with the two previous years:—

	1878.	1877.	1876.
Total supply of all kinds.	1,020,000	1,340,000	1,776,200
,, ,, Surats.	310,000	328,000	574,400
For the U. K. only the figures are:—
Stock in Liverpool.....	387,000	598,000	721,060

The American crop figures to date are:—

,, Exports to U. K. ,,	11,000	4,000	1,000

,, ,, to Continent. ,,	4 000	6,000	11, 00
,, Stock at all Ports...	170,000	130, 00	224,000

The Bank of Bombay return for the week ending on Saturday shows the following changes:—

Public Deposits at H. O.	Dec. Rs.	512 319
Do. ,, Branches.....	Inc. ,,	73,338
Other Deposits	Inc. ,,	1,697,505
Loans on Security of Government Paper	Dec. ,,	101 345
Bills Discounted	Dec. ,,	3:,169
Cash Balances with Correspondents	Inc. ,,	98,368
Cash and Currency Notes.....	Inc. ,,	1,371,831

These alterations are as in extremely favourable shewing a further increase in the Cash Balance of 14½ akhs, and a decrease in the public demand for money of about 14 lakhs, and if it were not for the probability of complications on the frontier a reduction in the Bank's rates of discount might be looked for this week. Money continues plentiful in Bengal at about one per cent. below the Bank's rates.

STERLING EXCHANGE has been quiet throughout the day. Transactions have only been on a very small scale, the enquiry for Bank Bills being insignificant, while the amount of private Bills-making is no greater. The Calcutta Market being now closed for the Pujas we did not anticipate much change in rates before Thursday, when they will be regulated by the allotment of Council Drafts in London. With the larger amount to be offered and the probability of a smaller demand for remittance to the East, we think we may safely calculate upon the allotment taking place at a lower rate than last week; and consequently upon rates of exchange next Mail day being lower than our present quotations, which are as follows:—

Bank Bills, on demand	Is. 7 27-32d.	per Rs.
Do. 6 months' sight...	Is. 8d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ...	Is. 8 3-16d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ...	Is. 8¼d.	,,
France, 3 ,, ...	2-13/16.	,,

GOVERNMENT PAPER is unchanged at Rs. 95¼ for Fours; Rs. 95¼ for Fours-and-a half; and Rs. 100¼ for New Fours-and-a half per cent.

The SHARE MARKET remains quiet with a general tendency, but with the exception of Spinning and Weaving Companies, there have been no movement of importance. In the Scrip of these concerns we notice a further decline in value of Rs. 10 in Dhurmseys; Rs. 20 in Jewraz Ballos; Rs. 10 in Colabas; and Rs. 5 in Nurseys. In Land Companies Colabas have advanced to Rs. 885. In Press Companies Bearas and Mofussils have given way Rs. 5 per share.

In Cotton to-day we have not heard of any transactions for export, but we look for a better enquiry to-morrow as the Liverpool Market this morning opened strong notwithstanding the lower quotation from New York.

LINSEED and RAPESEED are virtually unchanged.

WHEAT.—The price is still maintained by grain dealers at a famine rate; but with the prospect of abundant Food Crops from all sides we anticipate a collapse very shortly.

FREIGHTS.—There is scarcely any cargo offering for Liverpool for early shipments at 10s. per ton. We hear of engagements for Trieste and Venice for December at 30s. per ton, freight payable here; and for the Mediterranean ports at 35s. per ton.

COALS.—The Market is very flat.

HIS Excellency the Governor left Bombay yesterday morning for Ganesh Khind under a salute of 17 guns. Major E. S. Rivett-Carnac returns to-morrow to Poona, but will come down to Bombay again at the end of the week to represent H. E. the Governor on the departure of Sir Charles Staveley, and also to receive the new Commander-in-Chief, Lieut-General Warry.

H. E. SIR C. STAVELEY arrived in Bombay on Sunday, and remains here until the 7th inst. when he proceeds home by the mail steamer on that day.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR has abandoned the intention of going to Mahableshwar from Poona before the 15th inst., as the recent heavy rains have made travelling very difficult.

BRIGADIER GENERAL BROOKE, Adjutant General, Brigadier General Burrows, Quarter Master General, and Colonel Justice, Military Secretary, arrived in Bombay yesterday, and will remain here until the arrival of the new Commander-in-Chief, who is expected in the mail steamer due on the 8th inst.

IT is settled, we hear, that Mr. J. G. Moore, Collector of Satara, is to succeed Mr. Norman as Collector of Poona at the end of this year. The appointment was, in the first instance, offered to and refused by Mr. Arthur Crawford.

THE Government of India will make Lahore its Head-Quarters during the coming winter, and the Foreign Office has received orders to form a camp there. Sir Neville Chamberlain exercises a general supervision over the military preparations, and will not return yet to Macnas.

ORDERS have been issued by the Home Government for the supply, with carriages, platforms, and rscers, of the eight 12·5 inch 38 ton guns required for the two batteries proposed to be erected at Mahaluxmee and Colaba points, Bombay.

THE efficiency and expedition with which the Bombay Government carried out their arrangements for the dispatch of the Indian troops to Malta have received the special recognition of the Admiralty.

THE Englishman learns by telegram from Quetta that the rupture with the Amir has been taken quietly there by all parties. There is no excitement, and the country is perfectly tranquil.

THE mistake in issuing carbolic acid to a number of men of the 9th Bengal Cavalry at Malta instead of lime juice, the facts of which are well known from being discussed in the newspapers, has not been yet finally disposed of. We are informed that, at the instance of the Secretary of State for War, Lord Cranbrook has requested the Indian Government to cause enquiry to be made as to the manner in which the supplies were provided and shipped. The General Officer Commanding at Malta expresses his opinion that the accident was caused by grave neglect on the part of the contractor in packing poisons and simple medical comforts in boxes mixed without distinction; by the similarity in appearance of the lime juice and Burnett's fluid; and by the fact that the native hospital assistants could not read English, and were obliged to take for granted that what they indented for was correctly issued.

THE report on the operations of the Survey Department in the Northern and Southern Divisions of Bombay and in Sind during 1876-77, which was forwarded to the Secretary of State in July last, is considered favourable, as showing that a very creditable amount of solid work has been done under circumstances of a peculiarly difficult and discouraging character, apparently arising from the famine which necessitated the employment in relief enquiries of large sections of the working parties, who suffered much from the general unhealthiness of the season and unusual exposure to climate. In the conduct of these operations, the survey officers concerned receive high praise; special credit has been given to Captain Ward, of the Southern Mahratta Survey, and the Secretary of State fully concurs in the commendation bestowed by the Government of India on Colonel Anders on for his exertions.

THE death of Major-General Wilkieson, Royal (late Madras) Engineers, promotes Colonel James George Fife, senior Colonel of the late Bombay Engineers, to the establishment of general officers.

THE Secretary of State has approved of the proposal of the Government of India to exempt non-commissioned officers on the unattached list departmentally employed, and eligible for promotion to the warrant grade, from the operation of clause d paragraph 1305 of the Bengal Regulations, which provides that furlough to Europe on medical certificate shall not, as a rule, be granted to non-commissioned officers when within two years of their pension.

THE following gentlemen having completed their course of instruction at the Army Medical School, and having been reported qualified, have been appointed surgeons on the Bengal Establishment:—E. Cretin, A. Hemsted, R. Pemberton, A. Duncan, G. A. Cones, G. S. Robertson, G. F. Nicholson, S. F. Biggar, J. S. Biale, and J. E. Walsh. Surgeons Cretin and Duncan have been specially mentioned by the examiners as young medical officers of considerable acquirements and great promise.

A "STORE-VERIFIER" for all State railways, with the rank and pay of a store-keeper, first grade, has been appointed as a tentative measure by the Government of India.

THE Ocean Belle, which left Rangoon on the 10th September, with a cargo of oil for Cuttack, is reported aground on the Krishna shoal. The position of the buoys is supposed to have shifted.

THE brutal conduct of some persons at Simla, as related in the following letter, which brought about the attempt of a Volunteer at that station to commit suicide, almost surpasses belief; and their heartless neglect of him when he had committed the deed which is likely to prove fatal, is a scandal on our common humanity:—"Further particulars received go to show that the attempt at suicide by another Volunteer, was the result partly of intoxication, and partly of an absurd wish to prove himself courageous enough to do the deed. It seems that some of his fellow lodgers, who ought to have known better than to defy a man under any circumstances to do such a thing, still less a man under the influence of liquor, defied him to emulate his late comrade who had only a few days ago been prematurely laid in his grave; and when they saw that he had armed himself for the purpose of shooting himself, they had neither the sense nor the courage to disarm him, but 'bolted' instead. And even when the explosion was heard, none had the courage or humanity to go and attend to him; and there the wounded man lay weltering in his blood, with a deep and, it is feared, mortal wound in his side! This should be a warning to all to keep clear of excess of drink, as it shows what absurd acts they may be led into committing when in a state of intoxication, which they would never dream of in their 'sober senses.'"

A TELEGRAM from Rangoon, dated Sept. 26, reports that "the Burmese ministers are evidently manipulating the telegrams. Nothing certain is known here, but the impression is that the King is dead. The local Government despatched an express steamer to Mandalay on Sunday, and expostulated with the Resident on account of the absence of telegrams. One has been received now simply stating, 'All well; Prince Theebo proclaimed heir apparent.' Trade with Upper Burmah is completely paralyzed in consequence of the uncertainty and apprehensions of a disturbance."

OUR latest news from Mandalay, under date 14th September, says the Rangoon Times, is to the following effect:—"The King died on the 11th. Two of the princes, the Nyoung Yan Prince and the Nyoung Yay Prince, had fled to the British Residency for protection. On the morning of the third day after the King's death, namely, the 14th instant, the King's will, in accordance with instructions given by him prior to his death, was opened and read, when it was found that the choice for the succession lay between two, the Nyoung Yan Prince and the Thee Baw Prince. The preference was given to the latter, and he being then in the palace was proclaimed King, and at once proceeded to business by thrusting six of his brethren into durance vile. Two or three managed to escape to the jungle, and it is quite possible may be heard of again at no very distant time. Another rumour has it that the King is not dead. The gunboat Irrawaddy left on the 21st, and an officer, the doctor, and fifty seamen and marines of H. M. S. Lynx are under orders to hold themselves in readiness to join her at Prome."

THE Madras Times—There may be sound military reasons for imposing a waiting policy upon the Viceroy, if, indeed, it has been done, and that things are not brought to a stand-still by Lord Lytton's dread of adopting a bold policy. We scarcely think, however, that this is the state of the case. Of one thing, though, we are certain, viz., that to the great majority of Anglo-Indians, and even to a great proportion of Englishmen in England, the passing over of the present crisis without a resort to immediate hostilities will be regarded as revealing a want of firmness and bold initiative. The contrast will be drawn between the Marquis of Wellesley and Lord Lytton, and we shall be reminded that with Asiatic races the morale of a conquering race is maintained only by the exhibition of great boldness in a time like the present, when a slap in the face has been given to us by a ruler who is at the best but an uncivilised Asiatic. For our own part we must confess to some uneasiness at the decision of the Government, as we believe that the only means whereby India can be internally developed and strengthened is by laying once for all the Muscovite ghost, which, from the interior of Afghanistan, is capable of causing agues which may result in untold mischief. Never did there seem such opportunity for the exercise of a bold initiative, where that seemed the wise course, and about the only course. Before condemning the Government for not adopting an energetic initiative we prefer to await further intelligence, trusting such intelligence will amply justify Lord Lytton in the course he has adopted.

THE Englishman—The announcement that the Cabinet have decided to leave the Government of India unhampered to pursue its own discretion as regards the course of action to be adopted with Kabul will, we believe, be received with general satisfaction both in this country and in England. It probably means, not that the Home Government will exercise no influence over the policy of the Government of India, but that, being of one mind with Lord Lytton as to the main lines of the policy that should be pursued, it will leave him unfettered in the management of its details and with full discretion to decide without reference in any emergencies, demanding prompt action, that may arise. That, unless the Amir should at once furnish the most satisfactory explanations regarding past events, war will be declared against him and pursued until the demands of the Government of India are complied with, may be accepted as inevitable. That this is necessity, all parties are agreed, and, such being the case, the policy adopted by the Cabinet, of leaving the modus operandi entirely to the high authorities on the spot, is unquestionably the safest—if not the only safe—course that could be adopted. There is little room for doubt that Lord Lytton will act with energy and promptitude to vindicate the prestige of England. He is one of the last men in the world to waste any time that could be otherwise utilised, in unnecessary diplomacy; and, though, no doubt, a last opportunity will be afforded the Amir of extricating himself from his false position, immediate measures will, we may rest assured, be taken—and, indeed, have been already commenced—to concentrate a powerful force upon the frontier and to secure the approaches to the enemy's country.

THE Indian Daily News—We are strongly against doing anything sudden, rash, or precipitate. It is quite right to concentrate forces at Mooltan, to reinforce Quetta and to make preparations for a campaign in the summer. But there is no immediate necessity for hostilities. The probability is that, in the course of a few months, the Ameer's courage will fail him. He will find that Russia can give him no assistance; that many of his own subjects are quite ready to betray him to us; that he cannot find money to collect a force. Meanwhile he will reflect on the impossibility of resisting an army equipped with mountain guns and breech-loading rifles, with which his barbarous levies can be annihilated without a chance of retaliation. The hope that our supplies may fail in the wilds of the interior, will fade as he considers the organisation of a modern commissariat which can provision a province in time of famine. True, he may retain some corner of his dominions by a guerilla warfare, but he has experienced the miseries of such a position in his youth, and cannot wish to resume it in the decline of life. What is now wanted is time for these considerations to sink into a mind not naturally quick, and now given over to chagrin and grief. We must remember that it is a matter of great importance to us to obtain what we want in Afghanistan without fighting for it. War means a three per cent. income tax for the well-to-do, licence tax for all traders, and an increase in the salt-tax for the poor. It is, therefore, a great evil, which we should accept only when absolutely necessary. It will be remembered that we were as near to war with Burmah as we are now with Afghanistan, when Sir Douglas Forsyth left Mandalay after the King had refused point-blank to yield to Lord Northbrook's demands. But we escaped the cost of such a conflict, His Majesty making a complete submission a little later, when the excitement of dealing with an indiscreet and imperious envoy had passed away. What we now want in high places is the quiet persistence of the man who knows what he wants, and is fully determined to get it, but who is not to be hurried or flurried into permature violence. The despatch of the embassy, after the refusal of the Ameer to permit its entry, was not the act of such a man, and we hope that no more tableaux vivants of that kind are being prepared at Simla.

NEW forms of taxation are as much objected to in parts of China as in Surat. The Governor of Chusan lately attempted to impose a new tax at Ningpo, which has resulted in a serious riot and the loss of over three hundred lives. "When the mob first assembled the officials brought out 3,000 troops to disperse them, but the mob were too many for the soldiers, whom they attacked and fought, killing several mandarins and killing and wounding about a hundred others. The entire district for miles in extent would appear to be up in arms. The situation is represented to be an alarming one, the malcontents having already attacked one Lekin station, seized the official there and taken him into Fungwha. Since then they have posted a proclamation to the effect that unless the mandarins come to terms, they intend to come down 50,000 strong and do their utmost to compel them." A later report says that the southern part of the city had been sent on fire, and that the rising was extending on all sides.

SUICIDE.—A Coroner's inquest was held on Sunday last at the J. J. Hospital on view of the body of a Musulman. Deceased, it appears, was taken from the Rustomjee Jamsetjee Dharmasalla on that morning, apparently suffering from the effects of opium, to the above hospital, where he expired soon after his admission. The verdict was, that the death of the deceased was caused by opium which he voluntarily administered to himself.

A STEAMER IN DISTRESS.—On the 20th ult., the steamer Chinsurah was observed off Galle making for the port with signal of distress flying. It was observed she had a strong list, probably from her cargo having shifted; and in reply to signals made by her, lighters were despatched to her assistance and to see her safely into harbour. It seems she had a cargo of opium on board from Bombay under charter to the P. and O. Company.

He has shown conspicuous ability in the conduct of the Surat editors' case, and has by his general tact, judgment and talents become widely known, not only in Surat, but throughout the whole of Gujerat."

BILLIARDS.

COOK vs. STANLEY.

YESTERDAY evening these well-known players played what was practically a return match to the one played at Temple Bar on Saturday evening, although only five games of pyramids were played instead of nine as on Saturday. The billiard match resulted in an easy victory for Stanley, who made breaks of 93, 69, 66, 77, 76, and 113, the latter including 30 spots, 26 of which were consecutive. Cook's highest break amounted to 75. It is only fair to say he had the worst of the luck throughout as he missed several difficult cannons by a hair's breath. Stanley eventually won the game by 469 points. He was loudly applauded throughout for his brilliant play. As on Saturday night the pyramid match proved most attractive. In the first game Stanley scored 61 in a break of six, to which Cook responded with four. Stanley then made a splendid straight shot, which he followed by a good double, thus winning the game by 9 balls to 4. The second game also fell to Stanley by 8 to 6, each player making a break of 4. In the third game Stanley ran to 100, as Cook made two consecutive breaks of 5 and 6, and thus won the game by eleven balls to one. The fourth game Stanley won by 9 balls to six, going from two to five with three beautifully played hazards. The fifth and last game was productive of some fine play, Stanley starting with a break of 6, which Cook responded with a break of a similar amount. After some manœuvring Stanley won the game by taking the last two balls. This evening they play a match of 1,000 up, Stanley receiving a start of 250 points.

AN APPLICATION TO SET ASIDE AN AWARD.

YESTERDAY, at the High Court, an application was made to Mr. Justice Green to set aside an award made by Mr. Hormusjee Nowrojee Saklatwalla in the matter of disputes arising from the sale of the assets of the Alliance Bank of Bombay. The reference had been made in connection with a suit brought by Rahimbhoy Hubibbhoy against Munchershaw Bejonjee and Cassumbhoy Dhurumsey, the purchasers of the assets of the Bank. The Advocate General, in-tructed by Messrs. Tyabjee and Sayani, appeared in support of the rule which had been granted by his Lordship; and Mr. Macpherson, instructed by Messrs. Fleming and Smith on behalf of the plaintiff, appeared to shew cause against it.

Mr. Macpherson said the rule against which he appeared to argue was granted by his Lordship on the 12th September last, and it required the plaintiff to shew cause why the award made in this case should not be set aside or remitted to the arbitrator. The award was objected to on the ground that it was made without taking into consideration a liability of the Alliance Bank due to the London, Bombay, and Mediterranean Bank to the extent of Rs. 15,000. The claim of the latter Bank, on which a call to the above amount had been made, stood in the name of the late Mr. S. W. Read, who was a trustee for the former Bank. In 1868, the assets of the Alliance Bank were purchased by Munchershs Bajonjee or at least in his name. He gave the plaintiff Rahimbhoy a share in the purchase to the extent of fifteen sixteenths. The plaintiff said the purchase was really made by the second defendant in the name of the first defendant, who was merely his nominee; and plaintiff advanced to them two sums of Rs. 5,000 and Rs. 6,500 at interest at 9 per cent. for the purposes of the purchase. Plaintiff said that by the wilful negligence and delay of the defendants, he had received nothing as his share of the assets of the Bank, and that large sums of money had been lost. He therefore sued the defendants for the monies advanced by him; and prayed that an account might be taken and he be declared entitled to a repayment of the Rs. 11,500. On the 4th March 1878, an order for reference was made by consent; and the suit and all the matters in difference were referred to Mr. Hormusjee Nowrojee Saklatwalla as the arbitrator. A long time after the reference had been made, Munchershs Bajonjee filed a written statement with the arbitrator, asking to be dismissed from the suit as he had no beneficial interest in the purchase of the assets of the Bank and to have his costs paid. The reference proceeded, and an award was made on the 5th September last. The operative part of the award directed that the defendants should pay to the plaintiff Rs. 10,000 by two instalments, each defendant to pay his own costs and half the costs of the award. One of the alleged grounds for setting aside the award was that Cassumbhoy had not received notice of the meetings held before the arbitrator; but he never objected to the meetings' proceeding; and the arbitrator, moreover, had the power given him by the reference to proceed ex parte. The learned counsel submitted that the plaint, the order of reference, and the award were sufficient answer to the present application. The arbitrator never received the trust; it take no account of the monies due to the plaintiff; and the matters suggested by Muncherss Bajonjee's affidavit could not be taken into consideration by the arbitrator. On the 13th June 1878, Sir Charles Sargent decided that the Alliance Bank was indebted to the London Bank in Rs. 15,000 on account of calls. An appeal had been filed from that order, and possibly there might be nothing to pay; but the question was, was the plaintiff to be kept out of his monies? This matter of the liability to the London Bank was not all within the scope of the reference, and the affidavits filed on behalf of the defendants entirely failed to establish the grounds on which apparently the rule was granted. The plaintiff affirmed in his affidavit that Munchershs, who had collected Rs. 8,000 of the assets, acting in collusion with the second defendant, paid over the sum to the latter instead of to the plaintiff.

The Advocate General contended upon affidavits which he read on behalf of the defendants that Cassombhoy had no notice of some of the meetings and of adjourned meetings from the arbitrator; and that this constituted a ground for legal misconduct on the part of the arbitrator, on which alone the award should be set aside. There were three adjourned meetings at which Cassumbhoy was not present; and that fact clearly vitiated the whole of the proceedings.

His Lordship took time to consider his decision.

DAVE CARSON is having a great run at Rangoon, where his entertainment is highly appreciated. At a recent performance one of the gods kept letting his stick fall, and thereby causing interruption. Dave managed to stop it, however, in his usually quiet and humorous way by asking him to keep it between his teeth, or to stick to his stick.

IN one of his addresses to educated Hindus, the Rev. G. M. Cobban, of this city, compared Christianity with Hinduism, greatly to the disadvantage of the latter, the point of contrast selected for illustration being the alleged closeness of the connection between Christianity and the civilization of Western peoples, and the alleged absence of all such connection between Hinduism and the great discoveries and inventions of this century. A native correspondent in to-day's issue of the Hindu, puts down the reverend gentleman the following poser in questions:—"Why did science flourish in Europe less during the first sixteen centuries of the Christian era than before it. Why was there not even one Aristotle or Plato during this period after the birth of Jesus or Nazareth? Did the art of printing come into existence by the aid of Christianity or in spite of it? Did Columbus discover America by the aid of the Romish priests, or in spite of them? Did the reverend gentleman the Countenance of the Christian Deity in the Sabbath Day's Travellers at the Railway Stations, or in spite of it? Was the Roman Empire, the greatest that the world has seen, founded by the principles of Christianity? I don't understand what the learned gentleman means by associating the commerce with the West of the west. I affirm that Europe has become what it is, not by the aid of Christianity but in spite of it."—Indian Daily News.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Many of our readers will be interested in hearing of the miraculous escape, from what might have become a serious railway accident, of the Rev. W. C. Fyfe, principal of the free Church College, Calcutta, who is at present at home. We will let Mr. Fyfe tell his own story:—"On the 27th ultimo we were returning to Dundee from Bridge of Allan via Stirling, Alloa, Dunfermline, and Thornton Junction; at the latter station, we were joined by the Edinburgh train, and proceeded well and safely until after we had passed Markinch, when the carriage in which we were began to have an uneasy sort of motion. After passing Falkland Road station, it got worse, so that we could hardly keep our seats. I did not like it at all, but as it was an express train, and behind time, I thought the motion arose merely from the speed. In passing King's Kettle Station the carriage gave a sudden jump which threw us forward from our seats. I thought it was off the rails, and, immediately after, the carriage heeled over to one side, and we were all tumbled together to that side. I perceived the wheels on one side were off, and expected an immediate upset down the side of the embankment—as there is a considerable decline down from King's Kettle Station. We were dragged along for more than half a mile before the train could be brought to a standstill. It was a most wonderful preservation, as the carriage had been dragged along with the rails, and the sparks flying out of the axles tearing and cutting up the sleepers; it is most astonishing that the train was not thrown off the rails, and as the train consisted of 25 carriages, and we were on a high embankment, it would have been fearful. At last the train came to a standstill, and we were carried from Ladybank junction station for Dundee, at least even to a bruise, but considerably shaken and nervous. I have had much travelling in my day, and it is the first accident I have ever had, and it is a matter of much thankfulness to God that we were so mercifully preserved from such imminent danger."—Indian Daily News.

INDIAN EXTRACTS.

THE FAMINE IN KASHMIR.

(Civil and Military Gazette, Sept 27.)

THE Maharajah of Kashmir has the credit of being a well meaning ruler, anxious for the prosperity of his people. We cannot believe him at all events, to be a fool, and yet the apathy which according to all reports, exists regarding the present state of affairs in Kashmir, is fully amounting to criminal madness. A correspondent from the now miscalled "Happy Valley" writes to us:—"Apathy, pure and simple, is surely criminality enough

Egyptian, and 3,490 West Indies, or a net deficit of 34,820 bales, equal to 43,000 bales of 400 lbs. each.

The foregoing figures show that the basis for delivery of 50,000 bales, or a movement to the extent of 66,000 bales per week for home consumption, and 6,000 bales for export, are stock on the 15th November will be somewhat less than it was a year ago. The stock held by spinners will be cleared up, it is known to them, also by usual token-buyers.

We have made no report upon the American ports to the 26th October, 900,000 bales, against 856,000 bales to same date in 1877, 944,000 bales in 1876, and 1,044,000 bales in 1875. Deducting our previous estimate of the crops, 5,000,000 bales in 1877, 4,750,000 in 1876, and 4,750,000 in 1875, we have, therefore, if up to October 26th we receive 344,000 bales more than last year, of which shows an excess of all, 250,000, we shall have 94,000 bales less to receive between October 26th and the end of August than we received last season.

As to prices, we leave our readers to draw their own conclusions from the figures given above. It is manifest that so far as figures go, the position of the market is a serious one; but it is also manifest that trade in Manchester is in many quarters better than it has been for many years. For the coming year or three months the course of prices will be guided by the extent to which finances of stock, first hands and week trade; while, when the figures last a portion of their full extent, exceptional strength everything will depend upon the size of the crop indicated by the receipts at the American ports.

MILITARY EMEUTE IN TOKIO.

(Special Correspondent Japan Herald.)

TOKIO, AUG. 4.

A SERIOUS disturbance took place last night amongst the soldiery stationed at the barracks just within the old Takebashi Gate of the Castle, at present occupied by a body of the Imperial Guard. These men have for some time past been in a discontented frame of mind, owing, as they allege to unfairness shown in rewarding them for their service in the recent Satsuma insurrect on. Their officers, so they assert, have received a full meed of praise and recognition, while no adequate rewards have been bestowed upon the privates. Towards the end of last month, so it is said, they began to express the discontent they felt, but their officers reasoned with them and the affair passed off quietly. Last night, however, having held their place, they fired a portion of their barracks, and rising en masse, rushed forth tumultuously from the enclosure.

The residents of Tokio were first startled about midnight by several reports of heavy guns, at regular intervals, as though for a signal; next a wild shout was heard, and a large body of soldiers then poured out through the Hoanzo Gate in the direction of the imperial Palace. Immediately afterwards a dropping fire of musketry commenced, and continued at intervals for nearly three hours. By that time strong pickets of other troops had been posted in a regular cordon from the head of the Koji machi, past the British Legation, and round by the race-course at Kudan to the lower part of the Castle facing the sea. All passers by were stopped and interrogated, especially any soldiers who happened to be in the streets. Mounted, on foot and horseback, were hastening to and fro, and here and there might be observed a hospital litter borne quickly past. By 3.30 a. m. all seemed quiet, and no more shots were heard. To day all disturbance is over, though the police are still actively employed in searching for any of the offenders who may be in concealment.

It is said that the mutineers at one moment expressed their intention of proceeding to the Palace to present a petition to His Majesty direct, but relinquished the idea on being promised by some of their officers that if they would comply with the due formalities, the petition should be forwarded, in the customary way, to the proper authorities. A large number laid down their arms immediately upon this promise being given.

A NATIVE correspondent has sent us the following report on the military trouble in Tokio last Friday night:

"On the night of the 23rd inst., about half-past seven the second battalion of the artillery of the Imperial guard which is quartered inside the Takebashi gate, at its barracks on fire, fired two signal guns and then marched out shouting and yelling. The reason why the signal guns were fired was that there was an understanding about the rising between the guard artillery and the artillery of the Tokio garrison, which is quartered at Ichigaya, but the War Department, having discovered the plot, had ordered the garrison artillery to be reviewed at Oji on that very night. In this manner the garrison-artillery was prevented from joining in the mutiny. It is said that it was originally intended to postpone the mutiny until His Majesty's progress North; but it was objected that most of the Ministers would then be absent, and the malcontents would then have no chance of gratifying the grudge which they bore to some of them.

"As the infantry did not join the artillery, the latter fired upon the former; the firing was returned and a fight ensued. The War Department, however, was not unprepared for the mutiny; it had received information beforehand of what was brewing, and as soon as the disorder broke out, the alarm was given to the police and the public by firing five guns at the Imperial palace. Immediately everybody residing from the Shiro-mon as far as Tayasu-ji, Kajibashi, Kanda-bashi, Koji-machi, &c., was compelled by the rebels, whilst the police and armed at the head station, and were sent to protect the Imperial palace and the residences of the Daijin and the Sangi. Some of the Ministers of State were also moved, or already made their exit, one party of which got the Hatsuse put with the intention of laying their grievances before His Majesty; another party removed through the Takebashi gate, and attacked and rifled one of the Ministers of State, which was rifled and broken into. His Excellency Mr Okuma, however, managed to escape unhurt, but the bullets were flying as fast as hail-shot and Oranda-ochi to the great terror of the inhabitants, who fled in all directions, and one poor woman is said to have been killed near Sudo-bashi by a stray shot. Major Umenaniya and Captain Fukuzawa of the artillery were killed by their own men while endeavouring to restrain the revolt, and several Lieutenants and non-commissioned officers of the loyal troops were killed during the fight.

When the artillery-men, who had previously fled to the Imperial palace, arrived before the gate at Kasumi-ga-seki, they drew up in a line and were hailed by the officer on guard, to whom they replied that they came to present a petition. On his asking them why they did not present it through their commander, they answered him that they had killed their Major and Captain. The officer on guard then called out the troops and ranged them opposite the artillerymen, and when he thought he had a sufficient force under his command, he ordered the artillerymen to lay down their arms on the spot. This was complied with, and the artillerymen were all arrested. A similar step was overtook those who had attacked the Finance Minister's residence. They were surrounded on all sides by troops and armed policemen, and they seem to have had no further settled plan, so they surrendered without even trying to resist.

"The cause of this revolt is said to be the dissatisfaction felt by the 1st regiment of artillery at what was considered by them the partial distribution of rewards to those who had fought the Satsuma rebels. The fire at the barracks was got under about 1 a.m. on the 24th, and all the rioters were either captured or surrendered themselves. Before daybreak on the 24th, quiet was fully restored. But it is said that some weeks ago there was from similar causes a mutinous spirit among the infantry, which the officers, however, succeeded in quieting before it came to an outbreak."

"WE learn from another source as follows:—It has for some days past, been known that great dissatisfaction prevailed amongst certain of the troops in Tokio, more especially amongst the Guards known as the Konoye-tai. No outbreak, such as that which has taken place was, however, expected until Friday morning when the Government became aware of the impending trouble—it is said through some body having overheard the remarks of two soldiers who were conversing in a public place. Measures were at once taken to make head against the affair, without forcing an immediate outbreak. The Tokio garrison artillery which were known to be parties to the plot, were sent out the same afternoon to Oji to drill a while in the case of another body of troops, the whole of the non-commissioned officers, who were suspected of being in league with the privates, were at once replaced by loyal officers from other corps, and those which were put upon the dissatisfied privates. It was understood that it was the intention of the malcontents to murder all the Ministers with the exception of Ito and Saigo, whose persons however were to be secured. Of course the members of the Government were at once warned, and they were well, it is said, at the time of the outbreak safely ensconced, though in anxious expectation, within the walls of the palace. When the Konoye-tai, who were probably ignorant of the failure of their scheme, found that the precautions taken, gave the signal for the outbreak by killing their commanding officer and setting fire to their barracks, they found that they were alone, and being but few in number, they were soon overpowered by the other troops and police.

"That something more than a mere riot was intended, is proved by the fact, that the first act of the Konoye-tai was to fire volleys against H. E. Okuma's house, proof of which are still apparent, the garden fence being pierced with scores of bullet holes, and some bullets have even entered the house and damaged carpets, furniture, &c. Fortunately Mr. Okuma, having been, as above stated, informed of the impending danger, had that morning removed his family to a safe place, and nobody was in the house at the time of the outbreak."

(The Hochi Shimbun, August 24.)

LAST night, at about 12 o'clock, the infantry and artillery of the guard stationed inside the Takebashi, forming their about one battalion, for some reason or other set themselves from their quarters. According to the report upon the police inspectors and constables from the various police stations hereabout they, whether on or off duty, all came hastening to assemble at the Central Police Station, while few were issued to them, and they then proceeded chiefly to the residences of the Prime Minister and Councillors of State, but also in various other directions. The garrison troops under the War Department, both infantry and artillery, were also drawn out, and fired the different gates of the Castle. It seems that the rioters fired off the rifles already in their possession, for bullets came flying past in the neighbourhood of Ogawa-machi and Nishi-cho, whereupon the townspeople, assisting the aged and the infants, and accompanied by their wives and daughters, fled away blindly, great confusion being caused. We hear that both on the side of the rioters and of the other party there were some killed and wounded. In consequence of the above, police officers examined the passers by in the streets, while at the various Government Departments the military and civil officials were all in attendance. We shall to-day make careful enquiry as to the particulars, and give further information on the subject.

(The Nichi Nichi Shimbun, August 24th.)

YESTERDAY, the 23rd instant, at about 11-30 p.m. the report of a gun was heard, and at the very same moment some bursts forth from the barracks of the artillery of the guard just by the Takebashi. Immediately afterwards the troops stationed there rose in command and gave a loud shout, and next fired off some large guns and endeavoured to force the way out from the enclosure. The news of this disturbance having been learned at the Central Police Station, messengers were despatched in hot haste to summon all the police inspectors and constables from the various police stations, when firearms and ammunition were issued to them, and guards were placed at the imperial Palace and also at the private residences of the Prime Ministers and Councillors of State. At the War Department, too, the various regiments of the Tokio garrison were caused to hold the neighbourhood of the Takeuchi, and as it was reported that some men from other bodies of the Guards had deserted their colours, one or two scouts were thrown out towards the Ichigaya, Watergate, Kanda-bashi, Ryōgoku and Ushigafuchi Gate respectively, to prevent any extraordinary disturbance. Both within and without the Imperial Castle, men and horses were hastening in all directions, and the confusion caused thereby is indescribable. The flames fortunately subsided at about 12 o'clock. We, too, at once sent off a reporter, but at a moment like the present, when people's minds are greatly agitated, a hundred mistaken rumours are afloat, and it is impossible to determine the truth or falsehood of any one of them. We shall publish a supplement to-day the particulars of the affair.

NOTICE.

MALIGNANT CHOLERA.

AS this is the season when this dread visitant generally makes its appearance, I wish to make it known to the Profession and the Public that after years of exact and laborious experiments, both chemical and physical, I have discovered a CERTAIN SPECIFIC for this fearful malady. Pathological investigations, although carried on by some of the most eminent of the Faculty, has thrown no light upon the nature of this awful scourge. After half a century we are in statu quo.

My remedy will instantly check the purging and vomiting, relax the spasms of the muscles, re-establish the electrical balance, arrest the qualitative change of the fluids, set free the action of the liver and kidneys, and promote a genial glow on the surface of the body, and this without the pernicious exhilaration of sedatives and astringents. It is simple and harmless and may be trusted in the hands of any person, who will follow the plain and easily to-be-understood directions that accompany each bottle. Persons wishing to have the remedy must send a remittance of Rs. 5 per bottle. This will include packing, but not postal charges. All orders must be accompanied by a remittance to fill or they will not be attended to.

ARMED WITH THIS MEDICINE CHOLERA NEED NO MORE BE FEARED THAN A COMMON COLD.

Cholera poison and this medicine are directly antagonistic, and cannot remain in the body as such.

No Household, Hospital, Camp, Railway Station, Ship, Tea or Indigo Plantation should be without this remedy for a single day, and no journey, however slight, should be undertaken without a supply of this medicine.

SMALL DOSES OF THIS REMEDY TAKEN DAILY WILL ACT AS A CERTAIN PROPHYLACTIC AGAINST CHOLERA.
